

FAMILY OF HUERTA FLEES THE CAPITAL

Refugees Are Moving Toward the Border As Rebels Near Mexico City.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 8.—Evidence has appeared on every hand to indicate that Provisional President Huerta is preparing for the worst. Most of the members of his family are in flight already from the capital, and there is a general movement of the government's supporters toward the border as the rebels close in on Mexico City.

The President's household went to Guadalajara, the capital of the state of Jalisco, from where it was said they would go to the Pacific port of Manzanillo, in the state of Colima. The party included Capt. Luis Fuentes, President Huerta's son-in-law; Mrs. Fuentes, and Miss Elena Huerta, another daughter. It was reported also that the President's wife had left the capital. It was said that she would be sought on an American battleship.

Eighteen former officials of the Huerta government who have been refugees at Nogales, Ariz., from Sonora since the constitutionalists defeated General Ojeda in the battle of March 12, have left for Laredo, Tex., in obedience to orders from Mexico City. Other former federal officials in the territory controlled by the insurgents have received orders to proceed to Mexican border points.

The complete rout of Huerta's army in northern Mexico, with the flight of his general for safety to the border and the demoralization of the unpaid troops was established today by the civilians and soldiers who deserted Chihuahua City and arrived at Ojinaga.

Going To Europe.
Adolfo de la Lanza, minister of finance in the cabinet of President Huerta, arrived at Havana from Vera Cruz on board the steamship Ypiranga. He is going to Europe by way of New York.

A battle between the federal troops under Gen. Joaquin Casas, former governor of Puebla, and the rebel Aguilar is expected to take place in a few days somewhere to the north of Tuxpan. War office advices report a general advance of the federal army, a column of federalists said to number 1,500 men.

Rebels Near Tamiahua.
The rebels are known to be concentrated near the town of Tamiahua, to the north of Tuxpan, and appear to be preparing to resist the federalists with 2,000 men. The military authorities of the states of San Luis Potosí and Hidalgo have been instructed to support the federal army.

All persons guilty of spreading alarming reports in Mexico are to be drafted into the army and sent to Quintana Roo or Sonora if they fail into the hands of the authorities, according to a notice prominently displayed in the government newspapers today.

EXPECT EXTENSION OF STREET CAR LINE

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.
ANACOSTIA, D. C., DEC. 9.

Residents of Congress Heights and Giesboro believe the street car company will act favorably in the near future on their petition to extend the line from its terminus at Nichols and Alabama avenues to the entrance of the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company, two miles away. For several years the Citizens' Association and managers of the steel plant have been asking street car facilities for the hundreds of workmen at the steel plant. At present most of them are required to reach the plant by boat.

The Randle Highlands Citizens' Association will meet this evening in the Baptist church on the Naylor road to hear a representative from the Tax Reform Association of the District. President S. E. Snyder will announce the personnel of standing committees for the year.

J. F. Hagan, superintendent of the Sunday school of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, with the Rev. William Oscar Roome, Jr., rector of the church, intends to introduce a novel scheme this Christmas, whereby poor children of this section may receive gifts. At the Christmas entertainment for the Sunday school children, each pupil will be expected to bring one of the presents he or she receives for Christmas, to be distributed to the poor children.

Past Grand Master Dr. George C. Over, of the Grand Lodge of Masons of the District of Columbia, will be in charge of the ceremonies to be conducted by Anacostia Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M., on Thursday evening in the local Masonic hall, when the recently elected officers are installed. Milton J. Filkins, the retiring president, will be presented with the past master's jewel. Alfred T. Gresh, will be installed as master for the ensuing year.

The Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel Episcopal Church met today in the parish hall, V street, with Mrs. Josephine Filkins, president, in the chair. It was reported that a recent supper netted $100, which is to be used to further the work of the guild.

The Anacostia Citizens' Association will meet tonight at 1904 Nichols avenue, instead of tomorrow evening, as at that time the mass meeting planned to protest against the granting of a transfer of a saloon license will be conducted.

Anacostia Chapter, No. 12, Royal Arch Masons, met last evening in the local Masonic Hall and began preparations for the entertainment of the officers of the Grand Chapter of the District when they make their annual visit to this chapter on the evening of January 26.

To Have Smooth, White, Soft Skin All Winter.
(From The Woman Beautiful.)
Does your skin chap or roughen easily in this weather, or become unduly red or blotchy? Let me tell you a quick, easy way to overcome the trouble and keep your complexion beautifully white, smooth and soft the winter long. Just get an ounce of ordinary mercurized wax at the nearest drugstore and use a little before retiring, as you would cold cream. Upon arising, remove the coating with sudsy water. The wax, through some peculiar attribute, flecks off the rough, discolored or bluish skin. The worn-out cuticle comes off just like dandruff on a diseased scalp, only in almost invisible particles. Mercurized wax simply hastens Nature's work. Used as required, it keeps the face constantly free from dehydrated, scurfy, rough, scaly, or bluish skin. This will quickly eradicate every line.

Some skins wrinkle easily in winter. There's an excellent remedy in a harmless, wax lotion made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pint witch hazel. This will quickly eradicate every line.

SKIRTS TO INVADGE GEORGETOWN HALLS.
Innovation Tonight Due to Work of Caruana With Talent of Clover Dramatic Club.

For the first time in the history of Georgetown University the dormitories of the staid old institution tonight will be afire with presence of skirts, the latest output of the most fashionable modistes. The occasion will be the first dress rehearsal of "The Maid of Marchfeld," the touring musical comedy which the boys will present for the first time in public at the Columbia Theater next Friday afternoon.

Georgetown has never before witnessed the masquerading of the student body in feminine attire, and in this instance the rule will be disregarded in deference to the remarkable book and lyrics that have been turned out for the Clover Dramatic Club by Edward McT. Donnelly, of the class of '14.

The skirts on this occasion will be worn by the college boys who have volunteered as "chorus ladies" and as the feminine contingent of the impressive cast. For weeks past they have been visiting the local establishments where the gowns were being made, and had many impetuous with this conductor, but tonight they will be in their story and, in at least some instances, will defy the association to distinguish between them and the daintiest debutante of the season.

Maitre de Ballet Caruana declares that in his entire career he has never had a set of boys respond so promptly to his instruction, and he predicts great success for some of his charges. Under his direction the entire piece has been staged, and with scenery, costumes and properties, to say nothing of electrical and other effects, the investment already represents many thousands of dollars.

Interest naturally centers in Delphin V. Rodriguez, who is to play the heroine, the demure country lassie "Arlette," and who, in the opinion of his fellows, will prove a rival for honors with Julian Eltinge. His Gardner Duffy, as the hero, looks the part to perfection and is certain to receive rounds of applause for the ardent manner in which he plays his love scenes. Indeed his fellows, suspicious because of the nature of the role, are making interesting inquiries as to the past which has overlaid ladies into the new style gowns. These sets of strings. When you have one set adjusted you still have two more strings left. Think of that—and shudder.

To escape this fate, fat ladies should lose no time in getting rid of the large cases of Marmola Prescription Tablets—that druggists and the Marmola Company, Detroit, Mich., sell for 3 cents. One of these tablets taken after each meal and at bedtime for a short while will make her independent of the new corset. Being made in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription, these pleasant little standbys of the overweight lady are perfectly harmless, except to the fat itself, which they not infrequently do away with at the rate of a pound a day, and they are also the most economical and least restrictive means for reducing fat one pound at a time, without any of the interfering tendencies or methods of diet, however generous.—Advt.
